

Master of Arts in Applied Linguistics (Teaching English as a Foreign Language)

English Department College of Arts

Program Vision:

Providing distinguished outcomes in academia and research in Teaching English Language as a Foreign Language for community development.

Program Mission:

Providing labor market and the community with highly qualified teachers of English as a Foreign Language (EFL).

Program Goals

- To facilitate the students' engagement with the necessary knowledge, concepts and critical understanding for postgraduate study in the areas covered by the program.
- To understand the theory and practice of English language teaching and learning, and language acquisition.
- To enable students to develop appropriate skills in research in the area of English language teaching.
- To enable students to enhance analytical, critical communication and presentational skills in the area of teaching English as a foreign language.
- To develop students' skills in syllabus design and language assessment.
- To encourage students to take individual and cultural differences in critical thinking into account in the process of research and teaching.
- To provide the labor market and community with qualified English language teachers.

Targeted groups

English language teachers.
Holders of BA in English Language.

Admission requirements:

A bachelor degree in English with a grade Good.
IELTS 5 overall or equivalent language test (TOEFL 61 or STEP 83).

Program Requirements:

As mentioned in Jouf University Rules and Regulations for Graduate Studies.

Program Components:

It is an academic program that aims to meet the needs of the labor market and community in the field of teaching English as a foreign language through:

- a. Providing qualified EFL language teachers.
- b. Providing a supportive environment for teaching and learning.
- c. Providing a supportive environment for academic research.
- d. The program consists of a set of courses distributed as follows:

Compulsory Speciality	Elective Speciality / College	Compulsory/College	Research Project
39	-	-	5