

جامعة الجوف
Jouf University

Admission & Registration Manual

Pharmacy Program

Admission Requirements

- To be healthy and not suffer from any movement, hearing, visual or speech disability that hinders the practice of his work as a health practitioner.
- The pass rate in high school is not less than 90%
- The equilibrium ratio is not less than 80%
- Passing the common first year with a score of 3.75 out of 5.
- Obtaining score 4 in the IELTS test or its equivalent (before the student is allocated to the Program of Pharmacy and after completing the required average in the first joint year).

Admission Procedures

- 1- The Deanship of Admission and Registration announces that all Saudi students wishing to join the pharmacy program submit an application on the electronic admission portal (<http://edug.ju.edu.sa>)
- 2- The data provided is verified.
- 4- If the student meets the specifications and conditions for admission to the program, the candidates will be screened.
- 3- When the candidate is accepted, the results will be announced via the electronic portal and text messages are sent to the mobile phones of the applicants who have been nominated for admission to confirm the admission application through the acceptance confirmation page.