

Al-Jouf University communication policy with graduates

Preface

There is a relationship between the student and the university that is built during his stay in the study. This relationship should continue and be invested after his graduation. The success of the graduate in his scientific and practical life gives a true picture of what the university offers to its students during their career. Al-Jouf University, through the graduate administration in the Deanship of Student Affairs, seeks to establish live channels of communication with the graduates to complement what was built to ensure a fruitful exchange between them and the university.

Policy

Jouf University communicates on a permanent and meaningful basis with its graduates, ensuring their continuous participation and future support for the various activities of the university and its comprehensive institutional development, and the graduate units in the colleges in coordination with the graduate administration play their role in effective communication with the graduates and ensuring their continuation through appropriate mechanisms and means.

Policy implementation procedures:

The graduate administration at the university, as well as the graduate units in the various faculties of the university, were established and supported with human cadres to support their role in building strong relationships with graduates.

2. Updating the graduates' database and the methods of communicating with them.

3. Al-Jouf University provides an electronic platform for graduates on the university's official website, with the aim of direct communication with the graduate and providing the possibility of adding CVs to enable employers to view them.

Jouf University activates the Graduates association at the university and its goal is to open direct channels with graduates to participate in the various university activities and to offer some privileges to these graduates inside and outside the university in accordance with the approved regulations.

5. Al-Jouf University is keen to periodically poll the opinions of graduates on the relevant issues related to them, and the university endeavors to inform them of the results of these polls, improvement plans and the decisions taken.

6 Al-Jouf University provides free training courses for graduates to familiarize them with the latest developments and developments in their specializations on a regular basis.

7. Al-Jouf University organizes the Graduate Forum every year.

8. Al-Jouf University organizes the Career Day Forum on a regular basis.

Metadata Form

Policy title	Al-Jouf University communication policy with graduates
Policy code	VPEA-05 /05
Policy maker	Graduate Administration - Deanship of Student Affairs
Policy reference body:	University Vice rectorate for Educational Affairs
The stakeholders involved in implementing the policy:	Graduate management Graduate units in the university's colleges
Policy Issue Number:	V1
Next proposed date for policy review:	2021/5/1
Those involved in the policy:	Graduates
Key words	Graduates - employers - Jouf University - Graduates association – employers

Certified

Graduate Administration Supervisor