

Al Jouf University
College of Dentistry
Conservative Dentistry Department

Department Vision:

To achieve high educational and professional levels in Conservative Dentistry and Root canal treatments and dental Biomaterials and raise the efficiency of the graduate.

Department Message:

Learning students and allow them practice dental treatments to be qualified in Conservative Dentistry treatment and Root canal treatments and aware of dental Biomaterials in accordance with internationally recommended standards.

Goals

Provide unique level in Restorative Dentistry treatments that include Conservative Dentistry and Root canal treatments.

Pay attention to the requirements of the labor market especially in the field of cosmetic dentistry